'Lily of Quito' Is Holy Year's 7th New Saint

VATICAN CITY —(AP)— Maria Anna de Paredes, who offered her life to save her plague-stricken people in 17th century Ecuador, was elevated to sainthood Sunday.

Her canonization — the seventh and last of the 1950 holy year — was witnessed by 40,000 persons, including 450 Ecuadorian pilgrims.

Pope Pius XII presided at the solemn ceremony in St. Peter's basilica.

The solemnity of the canonization was interrupted midway in the ceremony by a fire on a cornice of the church. Vatican firemen climbed 75 feet above the Pope's head and stamped out the blaze, which was caused by a short circuit.

Maria Anna de Paredes, the "Lily of Quito," is the second Latin American to be elevated to sainthood. She joins the Peruvian saint, "Rose of Lima."

The Pope fixed May 26, anniversary of her death, as the date on which the new saint is to be revered.

Maria, who devoted her life from childhood to prayer, fasting, and other spiritual acts, died in a plague in 1645, when she was only 26. She had prayed that her life be taken and the people of Quito spared.

Two days after her death, white lilies suddenly bloomed in the garden where her blood had been placed, giving rise to her designation, the "Lily of Quito." Her father and mother both were of noble Spanish families.

ELECTED SORORITY OFFICERS

Two Madison students at the University of Wisconsin were recently elected officers of Sigma Lambda sorority. They are Lois Tuthill, 727 W. Dayton st., treasurer, and Shirley Landsness, 405 Maywood ave., rushing chairman.

51 Renters, Claming Eviction, Seek MHA Help for Housing

The Madison Housing Authority (MHA) received 165 applications for housing during June, 51 of them citing "eviction" as the reason for the request, according to a report of MHA activity released today.

That their present housing was temporary constituted reasons for 43 of the new applications, and 31 said they needed different housing to enable them to bring their families to Madison.

None of the applicants cited overcrowded or substandard conditions as reasons for wishing new quarters.

On hand July 1 were 76 rooms, 15 light housekeeping rooms, 12 furnished apartments, three unfurnished apartments, and three cottages or houses.

During June the MHA received an average of 88 calls and interviews a day in regard to applications for housing.

Other reasons for new applications were marriages, 16; doubled up families, 20; families living apart, four, and landlords not permitting children, undetermined, the report revealed.

City Students Named on Athenaean Staff

Two Madison students at the University of Wisconsin have been named to the 1950-51 staff of the Athenaean magazine, literary publication of the Athenaean Literary society at the university.

They are Jean Powell, 1908 Adams st., associate editor, and Bob Reynolds, 2021 Kendall ave., editorial assistant.
