

Corona Defeats L.A. Eagles 6-5

By MIKE LUGO
The battery from Los Angeles almost flew home with another win added to their list but the Athletics held them to ground level and outscored them by a close 6 to 5. The battery for Corona was Cortez pitching and A. Uribe catching. Cortez allowed only 6 hits and 5 runs. He struck out 10 men.

The battery for the Eagles was Neil pitching and Nunley catching. Neil allowed only one more hit and one more run than Cortez so the teams were pretty evenly matched. To describe the inning in which the point was made to win the game, Dickins was the first batter in the eighth inning and started off with a two base hit. A Uribe grounded to short stop and Tito Cortez got on with an error. Dickins flew out to catcher for the second out. Tito Cortez was trapped between first and second. The second baseman tagged him but he had the ball in the wrong hand. When he threw for home the ball was high and Dickins came in to score the sixth run.

Next week the Athletics play the Vermont Phibbers at the City Park.

LEGION COUGARS PREPARING FOR BATTLE DEC. 26

In preparation for their Dec. 26 battle with the San Bernardino College in the Corona High School gym, the Corona Legion Cougars have mustered all available strength and are working out daily.

Coach Condrack will be without the services of Captain Wayne Taylor and Jack Bulkeley and is therefore revamping his lineup. Willie Gonzales is still nursing a sprained ankle and will see little action in the forthcoming contest.

"Rabbit Legs" Bradbury, the Cougar's leading scorer, will don a suit for the first time in more than a week. "Shim" Nicholson also will make a long awaited return to the lineup. It is hoped that Bill Hatcher, a tall thin boy, will remain out of action before game time. He will most likely be utilized at a guard post.

Coach Schaefer of San Bernardino College will be minus several of his performers because of the holidays due to the fact that they are out of town boys and will be spending the holidays at home. However the San Men have a depth of reserve power and the absence of two or three players will not disrupt his smooth working organization.

The San Bernardino Freshmen will tangle with Red Hall's Eagles in the preliminary game at 7 p.m. This game should be fast and a high scoring affair for both teams play that type of ball. Variety of Bendon will come on the floor at 8:15 p.m. for their match with the Legion Cougars.

If college calibre basketball proves to be popular in Corona, there will be additional games scheduled with college teams in the vicinity.

BABIES TO GET SUGAR RATION UPON ARRIVAL

Every one of the more than 200,000 babies it is estimated will be born in the six western states in 1947 will promptly become possessors of a sugar ration book through a new plan of sugar book distribution.

In an arrangement just completed between the sugar rationing division of the Office of Temporary Controls (formerly OPA) and Thomas F. Clark, executive secretary of the Association of Western Hospitals.

This group, with other hospitals and medical groups, are being supplied with application forms for sugar rationing books.

Immediately upon the birth of an infant, the hospital will have a sugar application form ready for parental signature. This application will be forwarded to the regional issuance center in San Francisco. By the time the young citizen arrives at a permanent address, a sugar ration book will have been delivered.

Portal Pay Suits Hit Half Billion; Bankruptcies Seen

Judge Says Overtime Pay Not Portal, Involved In Decision

By UNITED PRESS

Labor unions across the nation sought at least $489,000,000 from employers today in Federal Court suits for portal-to-portal pay.

In addition, the CIO United Auto Workers Union said it would file suit this week for $170,000,000 in retroactive portal-to-portal pay for Ford Motor Co. employees. It planned similar action against General Motors, Chrysler and other manufacturers.

The $489,000,000 figure represented only suits already on file in district courts and was mounting daily toward astronomical heights as more unions sought portal pay for their members under a momentous ruling by the U. S. Supreme Court.

Bankruptcies May Result

Industrialists frankly were worried. They said that small concerns would be forced into bankruptcy by the huge sums involved in such suits. At Cleveland, however, Federal Judge Paul Jones commented in an official court memorandum that the statute of limitations might be applied to claims for portal pay.

He cited a decision in the Youngstown, O. Steel Car Co. case which ruled that statute of limitations applied. Many states have statutes limiting legal action to two or three years, whereas many of the suits filed cite portal pay law since 1938.

Judge Surprised By Actions

Meanwhile, Federal Judge F. A. Picard, who made the original decision in favor of the pottery workers, said last night that the original suit did not involve portal-to-portal pay at all.

He said the union sought back overtime pay for workers WHO WERE ORDERED TO START TO WORK 14 minutes early. They did not ask for pay for time spent going through turnstiles or crossing company property, he said.

Picard said he did not know how the portal-to-portal issue found its way into the Mt. Clemens case, or even that it was there when the supreme court made its decision in favor of the union last week.

Portal pay compensates workers for time spent gathering their tools, changing to work clothes, punching time clocks and getting to and from their place of work inside the plant gates.

In a test case last June involving the Mount Clemens (Mich.) Pottery Co., the supreme court ruled that such time is part of the normal work week. The court held that workers who win lawsuits for portal pay are entitled to "triple time" and compensation for legal fees.

The decision has resulted in a recent wave of portal pay suits against some of the nation's biggest industrial corporations. Suits filed since Nov. 20 totaled $198,000,000 in the Cleveland area alone.

One suit, filed in the district court at Pittsburgh by the CIO United Steelworkers sought an estimated $90,000,000 on behalf of 90,000 employees of the Carnegie-Illinois steel Corp. Another filed at the same time by the same union sought an estimated $30,000,000 for 30,000 workers of the National Tube Co. Both companies are subsidiaries of gigantic U. S. Steel Corp.

Seven days later the steelworkers union filed a series of actions in federal court at Hammond, Ind., seeking a total of more than $116,000,000 against three companies: Inland Steel Co., Youngstown Sheet & Tube, and General American Transportation Corporation. The suits charged that the companies had failed to pay for portal time for the last six years.

Officials of the Steel Workers union said the suits were "only the beginning." CIO President Philip Murray, who also heads the steel workers, said that portal pay "now is the law of the land, and there can be no bar gaining over it."

W. VA. CITIES BUILDING PUBLIC PARKING GARAGES

CHICAGO (U.P.)—Two cities are building municipally financed and operated parking garages, first of their kind in the nation, according to the American Public Works Association. The cities are Wheeling and Bluefield, W. Va.

The Wheeling municipal garage will be a three-deck, 700-auto capacity building in the downtown business district and will be financed by self liquidating bonds. The Bluefield 800-car garage has 14 floors for parking and is being financed by $450,000 of revenue bonds.

San Francisco and other cities have built parking garages with city money, but have turned them over to private concessionaires to operate. Detroit, Los Angeles and Philadelphia have planned garages on that basis. The two West Virginia cities, however, will operate their garages as direct municipal services.
