The Mosquito Creek Sportsmen's Association will hold their Annual Big Game Meeting and Show at Frenchville, on December 2, starting at 7 p. m. This has been an annual event and some changes this year will make it a carnival of fun. Just a new way of doing old things. For the camps there will be corn in wire baskets, for free. All the camps need to fasten them to a tree. There will be food served by the Ladies Auxiliary, and refreshments. There is no admission charge. The Show is open to the public and to those who hunt and fish in the area. Everyone is invited. No speeches, no formal meeting, few introductions. Something to look forward to for the following year. 11-29-12-1-2-ch

CARD OF THANKS--
We wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to our many friends and friends for their many kindnesses, also, for flowers and use of cars during the death of our son and brother, Mark Gmerek. Mr. and Mrs. Amelien Gmerek and children. 11-29-1d-pd

IN MEMORIAM--
In memory of our son and brother, Marlyn Michaels, who departed this life November 30, 1945. Seven long years have come and gone. Since you left us here for your life beyond. No one knows how much we miss you. No one knows the bitter pain. We have suffered since we lost you. Life has never been the same. Time may pass and bring its changes. Fresh with every year. But his memory will be cherished in the hearts that hold him dear. Though our hearts may break with sorrow. In our grief so hard to bear, We shall meet him some bright morning in the upper garden there. Sadly missed by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Michaels and family. 11-29-1d-pd

Bigler Polio Victim Released From Hospital

BIGLER -- Jack McDowell, one of the 1952 polio victims, was discharged from the Altoona Hospital about 10 days ago, his mother, Mrs. Madeline McDowell of Bigler, has disclosed.

Jack, a senior at the Clearfield Area Joint High School, suffered partial paralysis of the throat. His condition has so improved, however, that he was able to go hunting last week, his mother said.

Christmas Wrapping Contest Planned By Curwensville Club

CURWENSVILLE -- As a part of their annual Christmas meeting the members of the Curwensville Woman's Club will stage a gift wrapping display and contest next Tuesday night, December 2.

Each of the members have been requested to bring a gift valued at $1 to the meeting and are encouraged to wrap them in an original and beautiful style. Before being exchanged the gifts will be placed on display and a prize given for the most attractively wrapped.

Following the gift exchange, the remainder of the program will be centered around the traditional carols of the Christmas season.

Members were also reminded today to bring to the Christmas meeting their contributions of canned fruit or fruit juices for the Children's Home.

Area Deaths

THOMAS B. GALLAGHER
HOUTZDALE -- Thomas B. Gallagher, 80, well-known resident of this community, who died in his home on Brishin Street Thursday morning, was active in community affairs.

He was a charter member of the Moshannon Coal Mining Institute and an honorary member of the Houtzdale Rotary Club. A member of the Masonic Lodge of Osceola Mills, the Williamsport Consistory and the Shrine of Altoona, he had been superintendent of the First Presbyterian Church of Houtzdale Sunday School for 30 years and an elder of the church for 55 years.

Funeral services were held from his home here this afternoon at 2 o'clock and burial was in the Odd Fellows cemetery at Brishin.

Cellophane was first made in Germany and France.
