Beccaria Holds
Annual Community
Christmas PartyBECCARIA — Three hundred children were entertained at a community Christmas party held in the United Mine Workers hall here Wednesday, December 17.The community party was first suggested three years ago by John Trusc and has become an annual affair. Sponsors whose donations made the party possible were the United Mine Workers, Beccaria Garage, Beccaria Club, Marheffer Baking Co., Morningstar Baking Co., Purity Milk, Houtzdale Produce, Coca-Cola and Pepsi Cola companies and Eureka Stores. Eureka Stores also arranged for Santa Claus to visit the party.Weiner sandwiches and pop were served and the 300 children were given treats consisting of a half pound of candy, an orange, apple and a popcorn ball. The treats were distributed by Santa Claus.Smiling Steve furnished the loud speaker for the entertainment program presented by the Beccaria Schools and also gave several selections. His five-year-old daughter, Trena, sang a solo.The school entertainment consisted of:
Poems for Christmas, by the First Grade; Saxophone solo, William Twigg; Christmas Exercises, Second Room; Song, "Santa Claus Is Coming to Town," Second Room; Accordion Solo, Nancy Muhaw; "Making Christmas Gifts," Judith Kuhn; "What We Know About Christmas," First Room; Christmas Songs, Sixth Grade; "Santa's Petition," Sandra Siebolt; Accordion Duet, Evelyn Vanish and Patricia Warholick; Exercises, Fifth Grade; Special Days, Richard Harrington; Flute-
