

Sunday Radio Highlights

8:30 a.m.—WTOP. The Rev. Dr. Tracy M. Pullman, of Detroit, speaks on "The Church of Man" on Church of the Air.

8:45 a.m.—WOL. Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam speaks on "A Pageant of Triumph."

10:30 a.m.—WRC. Dr. Norman Vincent Peale speaks on "Change Your Life Through Positive Thinking."

11:15 a.m.—WRC. Gwynn Garnett and Jack Lynn of the American Farm Bureau Federation discuss "Possibility of Expanding Export Trade."

11:30 a.m.—W A S H - F M. Northwestern University Reviewing Stand discusses "The Uses and Limitations of Miracle Drugs."

12:30 p.m.—WRC. Author Maurice Samuel and Professor Mark Van Doren discuss "The

Earl Wrightson stars as host of WTOP's "There's Music in the Air" on Saturday nights at 7.

Reunion of Joseph and His Brothers" on Words We Live By.

2:15 p.m.—WWDC. Baseball, Washington vs. St. Louis in a doubleheader.

2:30 p.m.—WTOP. The Wagner Opera Festival, in Bayreuth, Germany, plays host to World Music Festivals.

4:30 p.m.—WTOP. Eddie Galaher plays host On A Sunday Afternoon, featuring the light summer music of Russ Case and his orchestra.

6 p.m.—WRC. Matt Cvetic is forced to act as a courier of stolen microfilm on I Was A Communist for the FBI.

7 p.m.—WWDC. Lamont Cranston and Margot go to church and find "Death Rings a Requiem" for the Shadow.

7:30 p.m.—WRC. Charles R. Sligh, jr., president of the National Association of Manufacturers, discusses "What the Housewife Wants to Know."

8 p.m.—WCFM. Listener Committee for Better Radio presents "Love in a Village," and "The Sweetest Wine Makes the Sharpest Vinegar," both from the British Broadcasting Corporation.

8 p.m.—WTOP. Junior Miss and her family return from vacation to the obligations of the city.

8:30 p.m.—WRC. Madeline Carroll and Jerome Cowan star in the Noel Coward play, "Tonight at 8:30."

8:45 p.m.—WOL. Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt is guest of Walter White.

10 p.m.—WTOP. Screen star Frank Sinatra and Comedian Jack Leonard are guests on "Robert Q's Waxworks."

10 p.m.—WASH-FM. The Eighth Annual Brevard, N. C., Music Festival for 90 minutes.

10 p.m.—WRC. Barrie Craig, Confidential Investigator, hunts down a valuable sweepstakes ticket.

10 p.m.—WOL. Theater Lobby, inc., presents a radio adaptation of William Makepeace Thackeray's "The Rose and the Ring."