

Wednesday Radio Highlights

11 a. m.—WWDC. Florida Calling: Singer Shelby Davis, Ray Evans and his orchestra help Tom Moore sing the praises of Florida as a place to spend the winter.

11:30 a. m.—WTOP. Make Up Your Mind: Artist Salvador Dali answers questions about painting as a hobby.

12:15 p. m.—WRC. Patty Davin Show: Guests include Tod Andrews, currently in "Glad Tidings" at the Shubert; and recording artist Jan August.

12:20 p. m.—WWDC. Lunch with Art Brown: Gourmet Brown tells women how to whip up a man-sized Western Omelette.

1:30 p. m.—WGMS. Music in School: Evelyn Swartout concentrates on "City Sounds" in this series of "A Musical Party" for grade school pupils.

3:15 p. m.—WTOP. House Party: Family Relations Counselor Dr. Paul Popenoe visits today's program.

6:30 p. m.—WWDC. Dinner Date: Hit tunes from the score of the Broadway musical hit, "Pajama Game" are featured.

8 p. m.—WTOP. FBI in Peace and War: "Accidental Death" is the story of the sudden death of a small-time politician immediately before his scheduled appearance as a witness in a state gambling investigation.

8:35 p. m.—WRC. Barrie Craig, Confidential Investigator: William Gargan plays the lady killing private eye.

9 p. m. — WTOP. Perry Como and the Ray Charles singers open with "Mr. Sandman" then Perry solos with "Teach Me Tonight."

9:30 p.m.—WRC. Big Story: Arthur E. Brooks of the Erie (Pa.) Dispatch covers the story of "The Boy Who Played With Fire."

9:30 p.m.—WTOP. Amos 'N' Andy Music Hall. Sara Berner joins Sophie Tucker as encore guests.

10 p.m.—WRC. Fibber McGee and Molly: Fibber comes up with a daring balloon ascension advertising stunt, just the thing for Wistful Vista merchants.

10:30 p.m.—WWDC. Squad Room: Poison pen letters which almost wreck a businessman's career are investigated by Detectives Scanlon and Grady.