

VIDEO-RADIO BRIEFS

Disney to Repeat Emmy-Winning Shows

ABC is bowing to public demands and will repeat telecasts of Walt Disney Emmy-winning Disneyland shows starting next Wednesday. First one to get a second showing will be "Operation Undersea" which grabbed off a statue as the best individual television program of the year. A total of 15 programs will get the repeat treatment.

Tonight Disneyland features "Man in Space," first of the Tomorrowland series, KABC (7), 7:30 p.m.

★

I Love Lucy, the Lucille Ball-Desi Arnaz starrer, switches sponsors come June, trading in the cigarettes for Jell-o. Latter will also sponsor a summer series produced by Desilu Productions.

★

Raul Macias of Mexico City meets Chamrern Songkitrat of Thailand in a bantamweight bout on KNXT (2), 7 p.m.

★

Seven danger signals of cancer will be illustrated on "148,000 Could Live," KNXT (2), 10:30 p.m.

★

Joan Davis fears she is losing her friends on tonight's I Married Joan episode, KRCA (4), 8 p.m.

★

Baseball fans get a preview of spring training sessions on Lucky Sports Time, KTTV (11), 8 p.m.

★

Jan Clayton will probably bring her Emmy to Jack Owens when she guests, KABC (7), 5:30 p.m.

★

Lupe Beltram, of KTTV's (11) Saturday Sandy's Hayride show has been voted the one the boys at C.I.M. would like to take riding. She's taking a show to the plant today.

★

That prince of pizza, Chef Milani, is Art Linkletter's Houseparty guest on KNXT (2), 11:30 a.m., KNX, 12:30 p.m.

★

"Corpse on the Town" is the Barrie Craig episode on KFI at 7:35 tonight.

★

Jimmy Gleason becomes the "Retiring Mr. Hewett" on Family Theater, 8:30 p.m., KHJ. Rosalind Russell is the hostess.

★

Richard Crane proves a match at Gale Storm techniques as a cowboy on the My Little Margie episode, KRCA (4) 8:30 p.m.

Herbert Marshall exposes a 500,000,000 franc swindle on his Times Square Playhouse, KCOP (13), 8:30 p.m.

★

William Alexander Abbott wants me to second his fighter, Louis Francis Cristillo in a battle with Boho Olson on the Comedy Hour KRCA (4) Sunday. I accept, William. Of course, Louis is Lou Costello.

★

Frankie Laine and Connie Haines team up on a pair of special arrangements on their KTTV (11) 7 p.m. show.

★

Gremlins crept into this aging typewriter the other day and had Terry Moore performing on KRCA (4) at 10 p.m. Tuesday. She was on Radio Theater at 6 p.m.; KFI.

★

Everett Sloane and Ossie Davis are featured in "Emperor Jones" on TV Theater, KRCA (4), 9 p.m.

W. A.