

VIDEO-RADIO BRIEFS

Oscar Awards on TV, Radio Tonight

This is the evening when the motion picture group dole out Oscars to the people and products they deem best of the year. A coast-to-coast audience will look in on the activities inside the Pantages Theater beginning at 7:30 p.m., KRCA (4) and KFI-radio.

In addition, a preaward show from outside the theater will find Robert Paige and Shirley Thomas interviewing arrivals at 7 p.m., RKCA (4). Bob Hope is set to emcee the Hollywood portion of the program, Conrad Nagel and Thelma Ritter the pickups from New York.

The moviemakers are going to make sure their stars will be on hand for tonight's ceremonies, most of the potential award winners being on the roster as presenters. One exception will be Judy Garland, who had a baby yesterday.
