State The simple and poignant story of a youngster's efforts to save his grandmother's ranch from financial failure is the theme of Eagle-Lion's Cinecolor produc-tion of "The Red Stallion," which opens today at the State theater, With a cust headed by Robert Paige, Noreen Nash and Ted Donaldson, the new outdoor film ranks as a heartwarming and moving film designed as excel-lent entertainment. It is also the vehicle of some of the fastest ac-tion and thrills ever caught by s camera.

Filmed against the awe-inspir-ing beauty of the Mt. Shasta country of northern California, "The Red Stallion" tells the story of a lad's efforts to save the ranch of a lagh entore to save the fanch by training a stallion for the race course. On the night before the important test race, the stallion is attacked by a vicious bear and, in one of the most unusual sequences ever screened, the fight to the death is presented with thrills never before filmed.

One of the season's most absorbing romantic comedies comes to the screen in Republic's new Trucolor hit, "That's My Gal," starring Donald Barry and Lynne Roberts, which is the co-hit.
