ms There was discontent in New York's delegation. James A. Faral ley, former postmaster general, urged his colleagues to leave Harripan and vote for Stevenson. Fitzpatrick, however, held his forces on the first two ballots. He, too, then advised Harriman his withdrawal was the best way out of a hopeless situation.

Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson was nominated early today with 617½ votes, but he needed only 614½. The reason:
A Maryland delegate with one half vote, a New York ogale with one half and a Missouri delegate with one vote didn't show up for the balloting. Neither did their alternates.

The convention votes were reduced to 1228, making 61434 the magic figure for

Winner in the Local Miss Sunbeam 1952 Contest

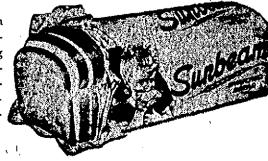

Priscilla's Total of 199,375 Votes Outdistances Nearest Contestant by 8843

Yes, hearty congratulations to Priscilla Lucy Fredette and to her family. And hearty thanks to all the little girls who entered this exciting search for little Miss Sunbeam. Thanks a million, too, to all you nice people who helped pick Priscilla from the four little girls on the Sunbeam ballot

The final judging will take place in New York during the first week in August. Judges will include John Robert Powers, America's foremost authority on beauty, and Artist Ellen Segner, who originally painted little Miss Sunbeam on the wrapper of Sunbeam Bread.

In the final contest, the pictures of Priscilla will be judged along with those of 47 other little girls from all parts of the country. This charming youngster who represents Cote Brothers, Inc., will have an opportunity to walk away with the grand prize or with one of the $200 U. S. Savings Bonds being offered to the six second prize winners.

Watch announcements in this paper for what happens to Priscilla in the big New York finals, Meanwhile, be sure to buy Sunbeam, the bread that carries Miss Sunbeam's smiling facel
